

SHERMAN'S ILLNESS CAUSES ANXIETY

May Mean Vice - President's Withdrawal From the Republican Ticket

FAILING SINCE AUGUST

Vacancy in Mountains Helped Him But Since Returning He Has Dailed Steadily

NO IMMEDIATE FEAR OF DEATH

UTICA, N. Y., OCT. 28.—James S. Sherman, vice-president of the United States, is seriously ill and steadily failing at his home here. While his physician, Dr. Fayette H. Peck, believes there is no immediate danger of death, his condition is such that it is a matter of conjecture how much longer he can withstand the ravages of the disease with which he is afflicted.

Dr. Peck at 8 o'clock tonight authorized this statement regarding Mr. Sherman's illness and his present condition:

Diseases Complicated.
"Mr. Sherman has been sick all of his year, due to the condition of his kidneys, hardening of the arteries and softening of the muscles of the heart which is somewhat stretched. Mr. Sherman had an attack in the Adirondacks at Big Moose Lake and I expected him to die. He got out of Big Moose and improved steadily and satisfactorily until the latter part of August. Since then his condition has been aggravated and he has been steadily failing."

Goes to Polls to Register.
"For the last three weeks, since he came back from Connecticut where he went to rest, he has been dressed only once; that was a week ago Friday when against my protest, he went out to the polls to register."

Mr. Sherman is now in the condition which that sort of trouble leads to and is very seriously ill, but there is, I believe, no immediate danger of death."

After a day of discouraging symptoms, Mr. Sherman rallied and continued to show improvement during the evening. This is due in no small measure to powerful medicines. Whether he can much longer successfully combat the attack of kidney trouble and complications is a matter of doubt. The members of his family are with him constantly, and his intimate friends have been notified that he has been failing steadily.

Shortly before 11 o'clock tonight a son of the vice-president gave out this statement signed by the attending physicians:

"After consultation tonight in the case of Vice-president Sherman the diagnosis of weakened heart muscle, the result of overwork, with some kidney involvement, is confirmed."
(Signed)

"F. H. Peck.
"Henry Elsenner."
Dr. Peck is the family physician and Dr. Elsenner is a specialist from Syracuse.

May Cause Withdrawal.
Washington, Oct. 28.—The illness of Vice-president Sherman and speculation over the possibilities of his withdrawal from the Republican ticket because of the precarious condition on his health, aroused discussion here today over the probable methods of filling his place.

The general opinion expressed was that the Republican national committee or the executive committee possessed power to fill a vacancy upon the ticket.

Should a vacancy occur upon the Republican ticket, either before or after election, some Republican leaders here today argued, the electors would have power to vote for any candidate for vice-president they might choose.

Ordinarily should there be no vice-president the pro-tem of the senate would preside over that body and the line of succession to the presidency would be to the secretary of state.

For the last several months, however, the present senate has been unable to agree upon a president pro-tem and that office has been vacant.

MEETING OF THE CREDITORS.
New York, Oct. 28.—At a meeting of the creditors of the United States Motor company and subsidiaries today, presided over by Federal Judge Hough, the receivers presented a consolidated report showing an excess of assets amounting to $910,309 over liabilities which aggregated $11,817,856.

Judge Hough authorized the issuance of receivers' certificates not to exceed $1,500,000 and directed that the property of the company be sold as quickly as possible.

FRANKLIN IS WINNER.
Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 28.—The Franklin car driven by Ralph Hamilton, won the fifth annual Los Angeles-Phoenix automobile race of 511 miles finishing with a circuit around the state fair grounds race track at 2:55 this afternoon.

The Cadillac, Souther driving, arrived second and the National, with Fuller at the wheel, third. The Franklin's running time for the 511 miles was 18 hours, 45 minutes.

GOLDEN'S STORY INJURES DEFENSE

SAYS HE CORRESPONDED WITH RYAN ABOUT AN EXPLOSION

Head of United Textile Workers Testifies Concerning Letters Written Ryan Referring to Dynamiting at Fall River in 1908.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Oct. 28.—John Golden, president of the United Textile Workers' of America, testified at the dynamite conspiracy trial today that he had corresponded with the iron workers union headquarters in Indianapolis about an explosion.

P. said in April 1908 he had written to Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers enclosing a clipping headed "Dynamite Explodes" and saying "enclosed please find newspaper clipping which will be self-explanatory."

Referred to Fall River "Job".
The clipping referred to an explosion on April 26, 1908 at Fall River, Mass., when two spans of the Slades' ferry bridge across the Taunton river were blown up. The work was being done for Bristol county by a contractor against whom the iron workers had called a strike. It was one of the jobs which Orrie E. McManigal confessed to having traveled from Indianapolis to blow up on instructions from J. J. McNamara.

Mr. Golden also identified a copy of a reply sent to him by Ryan. In the reply Ryan referred to an editorial in the union magazine commenting on the finding of dynamite on a job in Cleveland which a non-union workman said he placed so that he might "discover" the explosive and be promoted.

Mr. Ryan's reply to Golden was that the Fall River explosion might be classed with the finding of the dynamite in Cleveland.

Ryan and McManigal Closed.
Testimony that President Ryan and McManigal had talked for two hours in a room to which the door was closed was given by B. J. Cook, a former stenographer for McNamara.

Cook was asked whether he had seen revolvers or explosives about the union headquarters. He replied he never had but once when he was required to take stenographic notes of magazine guns which he turned over to McNamara.

Three automatic magazine guns, one shotgun and cartridges were presented before the jury as having been the property of John J. McNamara, James B. McNamara and McManigal. They were identified by Frank P. Baker, prosecuting attorney of Marion county as part of the property taken from the iron workers headquarters after McNamara's arrest.

BULL DOG MAKES ALLEGED YEGG PRISONER

Runs Down One of Three Alleged Safe-Blowers Unaided After Prisoner Had Succeeded in Eluding the Police.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Through the determined pursuit of a bulldog here tonight one of three alleged safe-blowers was captured unaided by the animal, after the chase had led through a crowded street car under a freight train and through a hail of shot, which failed to injure the animal. Policemen rescued the alleged safe-blower who was shouting for help in a back yard, and keeping the dog at bay with a crowbar. Three men were arrested as safe-blowers by detectives acting on information obtained from a prisoner in the county jail. One of the men, Angelo Roberti, broke away from the officers and darted down an alley. The police lost sight of the man, but kept up the chase. The dog who had been following the alleged safe-blower and was shouting for help when he boarded a car. The man thought he had shaken off the dog, but the car was running slowly and in a moment the dog leaped aboard and made for Roberti. He ran through the car followed by the animal, passengers crowded out of the way, and the pair jumped from the front of the car. He crossed the Pan Handle railroad track by climbing through a freight train but the dog ran under the cars and met him on the other side. Roberti began firing his revolver at the dog but failed to hit him. The noise of the shots directed the pursuing policemen, who came up in time to rescue the man, who was penned in a fence corner by the bulldog, and was almost exhausted.

"Help, help," Roberti was calling feebly. He begged the police not to let the dog get at him. The police did not know to whom the bulldog belongs. He resigned his capture to the officers and accompanied them to the station, but refused to enter, and was lost in the crowd on the street.

ENGINEER DIES OF INJURIES.
Decatur, Ill., Oct. 28.—Fred E. Yonker, engineer on the work train which collided with a freight train near Warden, Ill., Saturday evening, died in the Employees' hospital here this morning from injuries received in the wreck. The body will be taken to Joliet, Ill., his home.

This makes the fourth victim of the wreck.

ROOSEVELT GAINING STRENGTH DAILY

Hopes to be in Good Physical Trim for Tomorrow Night's Speech

NO USE OF RIGHT HAND

Has Little Use of Right Arm and Will Keep Out of Crowds in Madison Square Garden.

MAY MAKE OTHER SPEECHES

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., OCT. 28.—"I don't feel a bit as though I had been shot," said Colonel Roosevelt tonight. The colonel was so much better that his physicians gave him permission to re-establish communication through the correspondents at Oyster Bay with the outside world. It was the first interview he had given since his return to Sagamore Hill and he talked for twenty minutes without a sign of fatigue.

"This seems like being alive again," said the colonel as he entered his library. It seems good to get back into the old channels once more." He walked with a brisk, vigorous step and his face had lost none of its color. There was nothing about his appearance to suggest that he carried a would-be assassin's bullet in his body.

Will Use His Arm.
When he shook hands, however, he gave the first indication that he was still feeling the effects of the wound.

Instinctively he held out his right hand, his face twitched with pain which he sought to conceal, and he thrust his hand into the pocket of his riding coat and put out his left.

"I haven't much use of my right fist yet," he exclaimed. "I'm feeling surprisingly well but I suppose there are always some small complications. The chest muscles on the right side are sore. The broken rib seems to have knitted and I feel no pain from it unless I breathe deeply."

In Good Shape For Speech.
Col. Roosevelt said he felt well enough to make his speech in Madison Square Garden, New York, on Wednesday night and that if he suffered no serious effects he might make a few other speeches before election day. The hardest problem he said, was to keep out of crowds for he is in no condition to get into the struggling masses of people which often surround him on his campaign trips, seeking to shake hands. Precautions are being taken to keep him out of the crowd in Madison Square Garden.

"Some perfectly well meaning persons," he said, "might think that it was the psychological moment to shake hands and thump me on the right side." He placed his hand over his wound to indicate the spot he meant and added:

"They might make it difficult for me to resist the impulse to turn anarchist myself."

He had now gained sufficient strength, the colonel said, to walk about the grounds near the house with some ease. His right side did not pain him when he walked, as long as he kept his right hand in his pocket to support it.

His plans for the remainder of the campaign depend on the outcome of Wednesday night's journey to New York.

"I'll see how it goes then," he said. "If I get through that all right I may make a few more speeches."

A birthday gift which interested the colonel came today from Mrs. Richard Jordan of Oyster Bay. It was a cake six feet in diameter. Baking in the middle where half a dozen four leaf clovers were set, the road wound in and out over the top of the cake with electric lights on poles one for each state along the way.

The tiny incandescent battery concealed in the cake. At the end of the road is the white house. At the front door is an eight inch automobile, containing Col. Roosevelt about to enter.

NEW RULES ARE MADE FOR OCEAN GOING STEAMSHIPS

New Regulations Concerning Bulkheads, Life Boats, Wireless Telegraphy and the Reporting of Icebergs are Approved.

Berlin, Oct. 28.—New rules for ocean going steamships were approved today at a conference held in the ministry of the interior at which representatives of the German ministry, the federal council and the shipping interests were present. The new rules have been adopted as the basis of Germany's attitude at the International Maritime conference to be held in London. They deal with the questions of bulkheads, lifeboats, wireless telegraphy and the reporting of icebergs.

All passenger steamers carrying 75 persons including the crew and freighters carrying a crew of 60 must in future be equipped with wireless telegraphy having a radius of 100 sea miles. These vessels must also carry a certain proportion of skilled oarsmen to man the lifeboats. The regulations as to bulkheads have been thoroughly amended.

EXPERT FOUND POISON IN BODY

TESTIFIES THAT ENOUGH WAS FOUND TO CAUSE DEATH

Mother, Charged With Son's Murder, Had Specified Time He Was to Die and Had Insured the Lad for $2,000 a Few Months Before His Death.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—The state introduced its principal evidence today in the trial here of Mrs. Louise Lindloff, spiritualist, clairvoyant and crystal gazer, charged with poisoning her son, Arthur, and whom the prosecution asserts had knowledge of the deaths of many other members of her own family.

Dr. Walter S. Haines, testifying as an expert toxicologist said that he found between three and four grains of a mineral poison, enough to cause death, in the body of Arthur Lindloff and that he also found the same drug in deadly quantities in the bodies of Wm. Lindloff, one of Mrs. Lindloff's husbands, and Alma Lindloff, her daughter.

Says All Were Poisoned.
"In my opinion all three members of the family died from poison," said Dr. Haines. He also testified that he had analyzed the contents of a box said to have been found in Mrs. Lindloff's house, and found this to contain 80 per cent mineral poison. The unburned lump used in the bodies, he said contained no poisonous substance.

Dr. E. R. LeCount, coroner's physician, corroborated the testimony of Dr. Haines as to Arthur Lindloff. The undertaker who conducted the funeral of Wm. Lindloff testified that Mrs. Lindloff told him that he would have another funeral service at her house within a year. An insurance agent testified that the woman placed a $2,000 policy on the boy's life a few months before his death.

Was Willing Examination Be Made.
Testimony favorable to the accused woman was given by Dr. John M. Berger, who said that Mrs. Lindloff was willing that the body of the boy should be examined and volunteered the information that another physician had told her that he had symptoms of poisoning.

Accusations that the state's witnesses were being approached led to a guard being placed about them by detectives.

A number of fortune tellers and alleged scientific crystal gazers and spiritualist mediums, some of whom are from distant cities, are attending the trial, and, with the defendant, profess to see spirits hovering about the court room and to receive spirit messages concerning the case.

TREMENDOUS CROWD GREET'S WILSON

Democratic Candidate is Given Enthusiastic Welcome in Philadelphia — Declines to Discuss Roosevelt.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—Rising in prayer, a tremendous crowd paid tribute to Governor Wilson in the Academy of Music here today. The meeting was arranged and held under the auspices of the league of Independent Republicans. Gilbert E. Rowe, a former law partner and brother-in-law of Senator Leffollette and Rudolph Sorekels of New York, organizers of the Wilson Progressive Republican league, preceded Governor Wilson with speeches in his favor.

"The only question before the country," said the governor, "is do you trust the men who now are leading the Democratic party? If you believe they are the enemies of legitimate business, don't vote for them. If you believe they are wild reformers who don't know the course of change in this country, don't vote for them. If you believe they are inexperienced tyros, who don't know right from wrong, don't vote for them. But vote as you believe and as you trust. And if you see anyone promise the things which you think can be done, vote that way. I am not here as a partisan. If there is somebody else who can and will do the job."

Cries of "Wilson, Wilson," interrupted the governor's speech, and when the demonstration subsided a man called out:

"How about Roosevelt?"

"I have denied myself the pleasure of discussing Mr. Roosevelt this week," the governor answered. "I am on the platform in this closing week of the campaign in all soberness to discuss the issues and not persons."

MINERS GO BACK TO WORK.
Ely, Nev., Oct. 28.—The strike of the copper miners, mill and smelter men, was declared off today by an almost unanimous vote.

The men will return to work immediately at the wage scale effective October 1, which allowed all classes of miners and laborers an increase of 25 cents a day.

Condition is Improved.
Late tonight Mr. Sherman was quietly sleeping. The physicians had an extended consultation at a late hour, and after a careful examination of the patient said they found a greater source of encouragement and decided improvement in his condition.

MAY INTERVENE TO SAVE TURKEY

Unless Turks Soon Take Offensive Vigorously They Will Be Driven Out

BULGARS STILL ADVANCE

Victorious Bulgarian Army is Still Advancing Toward the City of Constantinople.

POWERS TWICE SAVED CITY

LONDON, OCT. 28.—An interesting question at the present moment is the whereabouts of the Turkish army of which nothing definitely is known. The news that Eski-Baba has been taken by the Bulgarian cavalry apparently without resistance shows that Nazim Pasha's army is not where it was supposed to have been—on the line between Kuleli-Burgas and Lule-Burgas. It may be further west in the direction of Demotica, but it is generally supposed it has retired from the line of the railway and re-entrenched itself on the long line from Demotica to Tchorlo.

Constantinople despatches continue to speak of the readiness of the Turkish army to take the offensive. In any case a few days must see something decisive. The victorious Bulgarian army still is advancing. It has occupied Bunarhisar and is going toward Kuleli-Burgas. It is reported that the Bulgarians have blown up a bridge, showing that the turning movement is making rapid progress.

Must Take Offensive Soon.
Unless the Turks are able to take the offensive vigorously the present situation is that they will be driven out, after other failing interference by the powers at the present stage to end the war, as happened in the Russian campaigns against Turkey in 1828 and 1878, when Russia had captured Adrianople and was at the gates of Constantinople.

There have been renewed activities with regard to European intervention in the last few days and great diplomatic activity in London. The Turkish, French, Russian and Italian ambassadors visited the foreign secretary, who had an audience with the king at Buckingham Palace.

The news from other parts of the theater of operations shows that the Turks everywhere are retreating before the victors. The Turkish army defeated at Kumanova, appears to be demoralized and has evacuated Kiusi and Veles as it is also known and is retreating on Monastir.

Expects Decisive Battle Soon.
Constantinople, Oct. 28.—The minister of war, Nazim Pasha, who has reached the scene of operations in the east, telegraphed today that he is well satisfied with the position of the Turkish forces and expects a decisive battle soon.

The message says the Bulgarian army sustained severe losses in the battle of Oct. 23 that it was unable to reform and resume the offensive. On the other hand he adds, the Turkish forces since that date have gained in strength and numbers and await confidently the Bulgarian attack.

The cabinet crisis has been averted and the grand vizier has decided to retain his office.

Ex-sultan Abdul Hamid arrived here late tonight and was lodged in the palace on the Bosphorus.

Servians May Have Made Capture.
Belgrade, Oct. 28.—Semi-official advices report that the Turkish army was retired from Uskup towards Veles surrendered today to the Servian cavalry and delivered up their arms. The Servians later seized 123 army which was defeated at Kumanova appears to have been entirely broken up. The Turks from Istip are making Veles the objective point of their retreat. Prior to the occupation of Istip by the Servians, the inhabitants arose against the Turks and seized their arms.

Marching on Kuleli-Burgas.
Sofia, Oct. 28.—The Bulgarians are marching on Kuleli-Burgas at the junction of Adrianople-Saloniki railway. Four thousand Macedonian volunteers have started for the front after a short military training.

Announce Villages Captured.
London, Oct. 28.—The Servian legation announces that a hundred Arnaut villages in the vicinity of Uskup have surrendered. Great festivities are being held throughout the conquered country.

Montenegrins Make Capture.
Belkain, Montenegro, Oct. 28.—The Montenegrins captured the town of Plevlje, in the San Jakof Novipazar near the Bosnian border, at noon today.

Advice From Tchorlo.
London, Oct. 28.—The Daily Mail correspondent sends the following from Tchorlo:

"On Saturday night were encamped here. We see the troops arriving and departing in long processions, but are allowed to know nothing whatever of the progress of the fighting. We are forbidden to leave camp, and held at the absolute disposal of the military authorities who brought us here from Soudier. Abdullah Pasha and the general staff are said to be present, but we have not seen them."

TELLS OF CAPTURE OF COYTEPA HILL

DESCRIBES BATTLE AND BRAVERY OF AMERICANS

When Vantage Point is Stormed and Won A Woman Rebel is Found Dead Among Those on Top of Hill—Rebel Loss Was 200 Killed.

New York, Oct. 28.—When the American marines on Oct. 4 marched up and captured Coytepa Hill near Mayaza, Nicaragua, after having raked the insurgent position with their batteries of rapid fire guns, lying among the dead rebels was a Nicaraguan woman—a modern Molly Pitcher. Clutched tightly in her hands was a one-pound shell which she was trying to load into a rebel gun, when a bullet from the American force struck her and she fell dead.

This story and other details of the battle were related today by Lieut. George W. Martin of the First Provisional Regiment, United States Marine Corps, who came from Colon in the steamer Crystalbol to have wounds he received in the battle treated at the Brooklyn navy yards hospital. The rebel losses in the fight, Lieut. Martin said, were 200. Two marines—Privates Durham and Bobbitt—were killed and several others wounded. The heavy casualties of the rebels were inflicted by Nicaraguan cavalry which pursued them after the Americans had captured the hill, the Americans, 1,000 strong and under command of Major Wm. H. McKelvey, attacked the rebel position after dashing across the country for 800 yards. Two barbed wire fences had been built by the rebels at the top of the hill. Private Durham was sent out in advance with clipper to destroy the fence. Despite the heavy fire another wire cutter succeeded in clipping the fence. The Americans then brought their rapid fire guns into play and attacked the rebel position from two sides. The fighting lasted only a few minutes, and when the marines reached the summit of the hill, they found it deserted, except for about forty rebel dead, among them the woman.

OTHER REPORTS OF CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Contributions and Expenditures of the Democratic National Congressional Committee is Filed—Thos. F. Ryan is Largest Contributor.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The report of contributions and expenditures of the Democratic national congressional committee forwarded to the senate investigating committee by Representative H. D. Flood of Virginia, treasurer, showed that contributions had been received by Mr. Flood in the sum of $10,925.55 and by South Trimble in charge of Western headquarters in the sum of $10,466.70.

Mr. Flood reported that he had disbursed $10,533.57 and Mr. Trimble $13,374.25.

The largest single contributor was shown to have been Thos. F. Ryan who gave $5,000 to Mr. Flood. None other exceeded $1,000 except a contribution of $2,000 by South Trimble as treasurer of the western headquarters and $1,000 by the Democratic congressional auxiliary committee of Washington, D. C. No itemized account was sent from the western headquarters.

Scores of reports of expenditures and receipts were sent by congressional candidates. Representative Serrano E. Payne, reported he had expended in his district in New York $1,250 through the county committee. Former Speaker Cannon reported he had received one contribution of $100 from F. D. Stout. His expenditures were $3,012.62, all of which was given to county committees except $130 expended for a special train and another item recorded in this way on Oct. 19, traveling expenditures and subsistence of secretary, $13.70.

Speaker Champ Clark reported he had received $65 and expended $547. Bourk Cochran, progressive congressional candidate in New York City, reported an expenditure of $1,459. Victor Berger, the only Socialist in congress, reported that he had spent nothing, "the rules of our party not permitting it."

FINISHES MAINE CAMPAIGN.
Bangor, Me., Oct. 28.—Governor Johnson spoke today in ten cities and towns of Maine to the largest outdoor crowds he has met during the campaign. The weather was raw and at times his voice became husky, but he insisted on finishing his program.

The places the governor visited were Biddeford, Portland, Auburn, Lewiston, Brunswick, Augusta, Waterville, Pittsford, Newport and Bangor.

The governor left tonight for Meriden, Conn., where he opens his Connecticut campaign tomorrow.

RECEIVE ENDOWMENT
Denver, Colo., Oct. 28.—Announcement of an endowment gift of $25,000 for the Joseph E. Shoenberg Memorial hospital building, dedicated yesterday as a part of the National Jewish hospital for consumptives was made today. The building was erected at a cost of $40,000.

POWERFUL NEW WIRELESS STATION

Navy's New Station at Arlington Most Powerful Plant in the World

WILL REACH 3,000 MILES

Completion of New Plant Marks First Step Towards Globe Girdling System.

SYSTEM TO COST $1,000,000

WASHINGTON, OCT. 28.—The navy's new wireless station at Arlington, Va.,—the most powerful plant in the world—tonight sent out the first messages which signaled the completion of an important step in the building of a globe girdling wireless system which will keep every ship of the United States navy and every insular possession within instant communication of the capital.

Report Will Be Made Today.
No official messages were sent but the results of the test were noted at all stations on the Atlantic coast as well as Key West and Colon and reports on the trials will be made tomorrow. The radius of the new plant will be about 3,000 miles when it is in working order. This range, probably the acme of wireless operations, will be attained gradually and it may be weeks before the plant is "tuned up" to its highest efficiency.

Communication with the Pacific coast will be attempted only at night for the present, but throughout the day the secretary of the navy at his desk in Washington will be with instantaneous communication with Key West, Guantanamo, Colon, the naval coaling stations, and all Atlantic stations.

When the plant is working perfectly and the chain of stations is completed, Washington will be in touch with Hawaii, Samoa, Guam, the Philippines and Pearl Harbor. The completed system will cost about $1,000,000.

Will Bridge the Atlantic.
Three huge steel towers top the brow of a hill overlooking the Potomac and dwarf the Washington monument.

One looms 600 feet above the hill where its base rests and that is 200 feet above the river. The others measure 450 feet.

At the base of the towers are work rooms, quarters for the operators and barracks for the marines who will guard the towers. Within a year the towers are expected to be talking with the Philippines by relays through Guam and Hawaii. Within the next few days the station will attempt communication with the powerful station at Clifden, the nearest working plant on the other side of Atlantic.

Constant communication is now being maintained by a commercial company between Clifden and Cape Race, New Foundland, and other stations are being constructed for the purpose of bridging the Atlantic.

A commercial corporation has virtually completed the action of a powerful plant at Sayville, Long Island, which will have as its European terminus a station of similar design in the vicinity of Bergen, Still another near New York is projected with its sister plant in Norway.

ROBBERY MOTIVE FOR CRIME.
Warsaw, Ill., Oct. 28.—That Mrs. Ellen Cullinder, aged 72, a widow whose remains were found in the ruins of her home six miles south of this place early this morning, was murdered before the house was set on fire was the verdict of the coroner's jury tonight. A partly burned rope was found around the woman's neck and she is thought to have been strangled to death. No clue to the murder was left and bloodhounds will be put on the case tomorrow.

Mrs. Cullinder was an eccentric and while she was not wealthy she always kept her savings in her home. She had a distrust for banks. Her home was found to be on fire late Sunday night but her charred body was not found until this morning.

PROGRESSIVES HAD COURT HOUSE RALLY

Speeches Made by Dr. Aylesworth and Judge Franklin—Laud Roosevelt and Talk of Party's Purposes.

Monday evening the circuit court room was filled to its greatest capacity with many standing in the aisles on the occasion of a meeting to hear Dr. Aylesworth and Judge Franklin discuss issues of the Progressive party. Many ladies were present and many people were unable to gain admission to the hall. Music from the Jeffries band was a pleasing feature of the occasion, the band playing in front of the court house and giving one or two selections in the building.

Thomas Stevenson presided and called on Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., to offer prayer, which was done and then with complimentary words he introduced William Reischlager, who mounted the table and in a voice which could be well heard all over the house the little fellow proceeded to tell why he endorsed Theodore Roosevelt. He said he was a Progressive not because it was the belief of his father, his grandfather, his uncle or any one else, but because of what the word implies. "All nature progresses and casts off the shell which has surrounded the meat for so long. The Progressive is a branch of the Republican party; it is the party of Lincoln. The old party though has gone so far to pieces that it cannot be patched up any longer and a new one must be formed. I am for a man who has the courage to speak his convictions and I ask you to vote for Funk and Roosevelt."

With highly complimentary words the chair then called on Judge M. T. Layman to preside. The gentleman said it was good to be there at such a meeting for momentous questions are involved. "Mr. Taft is like the boy's lamb which was put with the bad part of the flock and had to be abandoned, and a new party is indispensable to the welfare of the nation. The dissatisfaction with the Republican party is very great and the people are demanding a new deal. When the Republican and Democratic parties are forgotten the name of Theodore Roosevelt will be green in the annals of history."

The chairman then introduced Dr. Aylesworth of Chandlerville, candidate for congress on the Progressive ticket. Of what he said a brief outline is offered. "The mission of the Progressive party is to rediscover human life and fight the uncrowned kings of Wall street. The voices of Washington, Jackson, Jefferson and Lincoln urged the people to go forward and win in this cause and govern themselves."

"Jacksonville is the largest city in the Mississippi valley which is purely agricultural or which depends on agriculturists for its subsistence. Let the farmers cease to patronize its merchants and it would be wiped off the map. In the first years of Roosevelt's administration land values began to increase till they have more than doubled. Now prices must remain as they are if the farmers are to succeed and land may go down one-fourth to one-half in value owing to how you vote at the coming election. The tariff is the issue in this election and this is the reason. When Taft saw the danger to his party he negotiated with Canada a treaty whose provisions would have let into the country the products of $15 land to compete with your $200 land and remember, if he is elected he will go right to work to revive that treaty and the farmers will get far less for their products than our present tariff which is the great issue before you today. We must keep prices where they are if we are to prosper."

"Clark Defeated Reciprocity." Clark for the defeat of this infamous measure. Taft shrewdly put wood pulp on the free list from Canada and so got the press with him, and Clark was checkmated in that direction; he tried another line and lost out there. Then at last he made the people of Canada believe that reciprocity meant Canadian annexation and that defeated it in Canada and cost Clark the nomination for president and he deserves a monument from the people as much as any great philanthropist.

"Fair Share For All." "Roosevelt means to create, if elected, a board of control which will see to it that every man has a fair share of the products of the world. He proposes to bring the tools from Panama and dig out the Mississippi river till it is navigable to the gulf, so deep it will never overflow and will carry your products cheaply to a good market and keep up prices. The railroad magnates hate him but the people love him. The big men tried every way to get rid of him and a man aroused by the bitter words of newspapers tried to shoot him but all have failed."

Judge Franklin, candidate for lieutenant governor, was next introduced by Judge Layman. He spoke at considerable length and like all the other speaker, aroused frequent applause. "This is indeed a fine Bull Moose meeting. I hope no man will wince at being called a Bull Moose for he will not wallow in the mud as does the Republican elephant nor make the welkin ring with the discordant notes of the democracy, but will with notes resounding from his bounding hoofs march on to victory. This is a party born in justice and going forward in progress and equal rights for all. It stands for equal distribution and social justice. It opposes child labor, believes in a one day of rest in seven, the ballot for women for if the women voted crime would be reduced a minimum."

"The tariff is not an issue in any sense of the word in this election. Men will try to throw dust in your eyes and talk of protecting American industries and enterprises but they are deceivers. The tariff is not an issue; it is the rights of the people."

The Progressive party is for the initiative and referendum; matters to be decided by the people when they have duly considered them. For the recall of judges who are unfaithful. We know times are good, very good, but too much goes to the wrong places. Ten million men are working for less than $500 a year and the Progressive party believes in seeing that they get justice."

FARM HOUSE BURNS.

Residence of Simon Icenogle on Cornington-Woods Farm Near Alexander, Destroyed by Fire.

Monday morning about 4 o'clock fire, which is supposed to have caught from a defective flue, completely destroyed the residence of Simon Icenogle on the farm of J. W. Woods and Charles Cornington near Alexander. Mr. Icenogle and his family recently moved into the house, which had been vacant nearly all summer, and when the family arose Monday morning they built a fire in the kitchen stove and it is thought that the fire started from a defective flue. The building was in flames when the fire was first seen and the family had time to save only a part of the clothing and very little of the furniture. The house was a two story frame structure and was quite old.

MORE EXHIBITS THIS YEAR. At the recent farmers' institute in Waverly there were 613 entries while two years ago the number was 371. BROKE ALL RECORDS AT SOUTHSIDE PARK

GIFT GAMELON PACED HALF MILE IN GOOD TIME OF 1:03.

Won Race in Three Straight Heats—Society Belle Captured Honors in 2:30 Pace and George Tell Was the Winner in the 2:20 Event—It Was a Day for Pacers Only.

The track record was broken Monday at the track of the Jacksonville Driving club when Gift Gameleon in the free for all pace won the half mile in 1:03. There were but two starters in the race but it was a pretty contest all the time and the spectators were far from sure which of the horses would come under the wire first.

George Tell took first money in the 2:20 pace and Society Belle was the winner of the 2:30 pace. The matinee Monday was postponed from an earlier date but the attendance was good and the card was one of which the driving club had reason to be proud. It was a day for pacers only and there were three pacing events on the card.

The officials of the day were as follows:

Judges—George Craig, J. W. McAllister, James Sullivan; Timers—Charles Thompson, John Pate, J. W. Leggett; Starter—William Masters.

In the 2:30 pace the spectators thought for a time that the horses would never get off on the third heat before the starter let them go. It was a good even race however and Clark Green's "Society Belle" won in three straight heats, each one in 1:07 time.

The Summary.

CHURCHES OBSERVED TUBERCULOSIS DAY

Worthy Cause Receives Liberal Support by Members.

Nearly all of the churches Sunday observed anti-tuberculosis day, and this worthy cause was supported liberally. Envelopes had been prepared and these were handed to the members and later collected. At the Congregational church Rev. R. O. Post preached an excellent sermon on the subject and the 44 envelopes returned made an amount of $55.50, a splendid example of the influence the pastor's discourse had. State street church devoted the afternoon service to the cause. There were many contributions on that day and Monday, when the report showed they had also raised $55.50. Each one of the churches will thus be enabled to support a clinic for an entire month. At the morning services at the Baptist church, Rev. W. L. Dorgan spoke of the work and the envelopes are to be collected later. On account of the 80th anniversary of the Central Christian church the day was not observed there yesterday, but they expect to have special services in some two or three weeks. At the Church of Our Savior, Centenary, Northminister, was presented in some instances the entire service being given over to the cause. The envelopes distributed will be collected later and the amount contributed made known. In every way the day was successful and it is certainly a most worthy use of money and effort.

This will be the last regular meeting before the big get-together smoker and it is hoped that a goodly number of the members will be present to consider several important matters. Every young man in Jacksonville should make it a point to attend whether he has been given a personal invitation or not. ## DR. HUMPHREY SERIOUSLY HURT

VIRGINIA PHYSICIAN SUFFERS
FRACTURE OF SKULL.

Was Going Out to See Patient When Horse Becomes Frightened and Runs Away—Injured Man Brought to Passavant Hospital.

Dr. W. D. Humphrey, a well known physician of Virginia, was seriously injured Monday night at 6:30, as the result of a runaway. He received a severe fracture of the skull and was brought to Passavant hospital for treatment.

Dr. Humphrey was on his way to make a professional visit at the residence of Mrs. Thomas Robertson, whose wife is ill. When about half a mile from home his animal became frightened and ran away, throwing him to the ground and rendering him unconscious. The horse, with only part of the harness hanging, went to his residence. James Finch, happened to pass the scene of the accident and saw a man lying by the side of the street. He picked the body up and found it to be that of Dr. Humphrey. The man was unconscious. He was taken to the office of Dr. A. R. Lyles and Dr. W. R. Blackburn, gave him immediate medical attention. It was deemed best to bring him to Passavant hospital and William Strubbing gave his automobile for that purpose. Dr. Humphrey was accompanied here by his wife and the two physicians. Dr. Carl E. Black and Dr. A. L. Adams were called in consultation. It was found that he had received a bad fracture of the skull over the left eye and his entire face had been bruised. Dirt was ground into both eyes and it was difficult to tell just how severe his injuries are. Up till late last night he had never regained consciousness and in all he is in a very serious condition.

Dr. Humphrey is well known in Jacksonville where he has often visited. He has a son, Harold Humphrey, in Illinois college and Mrs. Humphrey is a sister of Miss Agnes S. Lusk, principal of the Fourth ward school. He has been practicing his profession in Virginia for over 20 years.

MAY INTERVENE TO SAVE TURKEY

A despatch from Sofia to the Mail says the Bulgarian detachment after destroying the railway for some distance around Eski-Baba, withdrew to that village. Adrianople is surrounded and its fall almost immediately is considered certain.

Asim Bey, governor of Kirk-Kilisseh, who is said to have been responsible for the panic there, has been executed according to a Constantinople despatch to the Mail.

Floods Impede Military Movements.
London, Oct. 28.—The town of Bunarhisar, says a Sofia despatch to the Times will form a point in the outer line of Bulgarian positions surrounding Adrianople which will be drawn through emotica and Ortaki—an enveloping movement which would isolate Obdullah Pasha's army or compel it to retreat to the west.

Meanwhile the Rhodope army under General Kovatcheff advancing by way of Novrokip down the valley of the river Mesta Kerusu, will approach the railway line further west. A third army is reported to have reached Ispa, although this is not officially confirmed, and is expected to join the Serbian army and advance towards Monastir.

An important decision remains to be taken regarding Adrianople. The troops investing the town are encountering great difficulties owing to the country being inundated by the river Mariza, as the result of heavy rains. The floods also impede the military movements of Turks and their transport of provisions into town.

Further developments largely depend upon Abdullah's plans and a pitched battle seems in prospect. But the general movements of the Turks have already been much hampered by repulses on the right wing. The Bulgarians have to decide whether, in view of the effect produced on their own troops, and on the Turks by the fall of Kirk-Kilisseh, the psychological moment has not arrived to attempt to storm the fortress. In the opinion of some of the foreign military experts, Odriae people may be found as formidable as Kirk-Kilisseh in as much as the fortifications, although laid out by German officers were constructed by Turkish contractors and may prove of doubtful solidity for resisting artillery fire.

Debating Balkan Problem.
Vienna, Oct. 28.—The cabinet council assembled at four o'clock this afternoon and still was sitting at midnight. Count Von Berchtold, the foreign minister, presided. It is reported that the council is debating the Balkan problem and the attitude of Rumania.

Would Insist on Rights.
Bucharest, Rumania, Oct. 28.—The cabinet has decided that the circumstances do not warrant the mobilization of the Rumanian army. The king, addressing the ministers, declared, however, that the existing grave situation would impose upon Rumania the "duty of arriving at important decisions."

The king's speech is interpreted as indicating that in the event of Turkey's defeat Rumania would insist on being considered on any redistribution of Turkish domains.

MAKES BREAK FOR FREEDOM

WILL RHODES ESCAPES FROM SCOTT COUNTY JAIL.

Knocks Jailer Down Who Brings Him Supper and Makes Get-Away —Was in Prison on Charge of Murdering His Mother-in-Law.

William Rhodes, whom it was charged brutally murdered his mother-in-law, Mrs. A. L. Mitchell, at her home six miles southwest of Winchester, Thursday night, Sept. 13, escaped from the jail at Winchester Monday night at 6 o'clock and made complete his get-away. He made his escape by knocking down Jailer Coultas, who was taking his supper in the cell. Coultas unlocked the door to enter the cell, and without warning, Rhodes jumped onto the jailer, knocking him unconscious and making his complete escape. A posse was formed to scour the country, but no trace could be found of the prisoner. Mr. Stumpf of Springfield, who owns a number of bloodhounds, was notified and he telephoned the Winchester authorities that he would make the trip overland. A. E. McKee and Streuter came to Jacksonville from Winchester last night in their automobile in order to meet the Stumpf party, but different routes must have been taken as the McKee party left the city alone after being here about an hour. Up to a late hour last night no trace of the man had been found.

The crime for which Rhodes was in prison was a brutal one. He had quarreled with his wife and left home and gone to Beardstown. On the evening of the tragedy he went to his mother-in-law's home, where his wife was stopping. A quarrel ensued and as a result Mrs. Mitchell was shot. Rhodes made his escape and after 18 hours search delivered himself up to the Scott county authorities. He was in a very weakened condition from the loss of blood, his throat having been cut almost from ear to ear. He told the story that in the melee at the Mitchell home that someone had cut his throat with a butcher knife. For several days it was thought that Rhodes could not get well. Rhodes has not borne a very good reputation for temperance and good conduct. His escape occasioned no little excitement in Winchester and vicinity. All the nearby towns have been notified of his escape and the hunt has been somewhat handicapped on account of the lateness of his escape.

SPEAKS IN MONTANA.
Roundup, Mont., Oct. 28.—Governor Marshall, of Indiana, wound up his campaign in Montana with speeches late today at Harlowtown and Roundup, in which he directed criticism at the man who lives for business only and for business success in life.

"My quarrel in this campaign," said Governor Marshall, is not with the business man big or little, simply because he happens to be a business man. But there is no menace to the country's welfare so great as the business man who will sacrifice every interest of the republic in order to advance his own personal business affairs.

TRACK NOW DESERTED.
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 28.—State troops today were recalled from the Mineral Springs race track at Porter Ind., and tonight the grounds were reported deserted, except for a few horses which will be wintered there. ## GOOD RESOLUTIONS

Those that make for comfort, convenience and economy and are lived up to—such are the resolutions to install gas in the home, as a means for lighting, heating and cooking. Certainly no intelligent man or woman today would be without gas unless they were where it could not be secured. As a matter of fact, people in the country realize so fully its advantages that they have imitated it by installing acetylene plants, which are extremely costly. However, for the small sum of $1.25 per room, you can have gas in your home. Why not see us today about this matter?

THINK BEFORE YOU VOTE

Abraham Lincoln made the best tariff speech ever recorded when he said:

"I do not know much about the tariff, but I know this much, when we buy manufactured goods abroad we get the goods and the foreigner gets the money. When we buy the manufactured goods at home we get both the goods and the money."

For year ending June 30, 1912, we sold abroad $550,795,914 more than we bought from abroad.

We are getting both the goods and the money.

"If there is one body of men more than another whose support I feel I have a right to challenge more than any other on behalf of President Taft it is the body of wage-workers of the country. A stancher friend, a firmer and truer representative, they cannot find within the borders of the United States. He will do everything in his power for them except to do that which is wrong; he will do wrong for no man and therefore can be trusted by all men."—Theodore Roosevelt, Sept. 9, 1908.

REPUBLICAN PROSPERITY.

To The Journal: Every voter should consider seriously the financial interests of the country in casting his ballot on Nov. 5. The similarity between conditions existing now and twenty years ago is very striking. Then the country was prosperous, but in the midst of prosperity there was dissatisfaction, and a number of labor strikes occurred, doubtless in the hope of making things better. The pledges of the Democratic party with reference to the tariff were substantially the same that they are in the present platform. Both declared for a tariff for revenue only, and that a tariff which protected American industries was unconstitutional. It was well known in 1892 that if the Democratic party was successful, its principles with reference to the tariff would be put into practice. Hence, immediately after the election in that year the manufacturing interests of the country began to prepare for the storm which they knew must come. They curtailed manufactures, because they knew there would be a reduction in the tariff and they would have to compete with foreign cheap labor; working men were thrown out of employment; they were unable to buy food products as heretofore and the prices of all products of the farm were rapidly reduced. For 24 years I have kept a record of the prices for which crops were sold from a farm that I own in Pike county. This record shows that up to January, 1893, and for several years prior thereto, my corn was sold from 40 to 52½ cents per bushel. In 1894 it dropped to 30 cents, and thereafter still lower until in 1896 it sold as low as 16 cents per bushel. A crop of 3,100 bushels in 1895 produced only $570, or an average of about 18 cents per bushel. These low prices continued until after the election in 1896, when McKinley was elected with the promise of a protective tariff, and soon prices began to recover. Every farmer knows that since that time corn has been a profitable crop to raise, usually selling at from 45 to 70 cents per bushel. This increase in price has occurred in the face of large crops, and has been caused chiefly by the fact that American working men have been employed at good wages, much higher than in 1893-7, and they and their families could afford to eat the products of our corn crop. This is only one article that a farmer raises, but it is a good index of all the rest of his crops and products.

With this record in view, why should any farmer take the chances involving in a change of policy? Is it good business sense? Would any farmer who is doing well in business change his plans of operation to suit the theories of some speculators? We think not, when dealing with his private business. Then why should he do so in dealing with the business affairs of the nation? This coming election is a business proposition for every man, woman and child in the United States. Are you going to risk the re-establishment of the soup houses that covered our country from 1893 to 1897?

But our Democratic friends say that the reduction of the tariff, or the threatened reduction, was not the main cause of the hard times which commenced in 1893. We have the record of history to prove that every time a radical reduction has been made in the tariff, it has disarranged business and brought upon the country hard times. This is the natural result to be expected, from any radical change in business conditions affecting large industries. The hard times that the farmers suffered from 1893 to 1907 were reflected in all lines of business and the conditions of labor. The lowered the changes in the tariff and added business confidence have been proved conditions that have been shared by all classes of people. Labor has been well employed and merchants have been getting good prices for their goods. There is not sufficient reason why any one interested in business should want to change. Thos. Worthington.

THE SAME OLD QUESTION.

Many public speaking politicians seem to agree in at least one belief, and that is that they must treat disparagingly successful business, at the same time assuring both the unemployed poor and the industrious laboring classes that legislation can be brought about which will lower the cost of living and raise wages. It would seem that when some men disapprove of anything, their first instinct is to get a law passed to forbid or prevent what in their wisdom is bad for the world. No one seems to come out with the truth on these matters. We are told that our social and business conditions are entirely out of order, when, as a matter of fact, all industry, as has been proven by the increase in production, has been moving toward greater promptness, greater efficiency and greater reliability. In spite of steady improvement this progress has been attended all the way by lamentation about the "good old times," the decline of the individual and of society, and by the complaint that a man has to pay out more and receive less.

As a matter of fact, when we talk about the lower cost of living, who would go back to the old simplicity and inconvenience of all kinds? We could have the lower prices if we would endure the old conditions.

According to record, just one hundred years ago debates were held on the following questions: "Ought the Judiciary to be Independent?" "Ought the Poor to be Supported by Law?" "Are the Abilities of the Sexes Equal?" "Ought the Liberty of the Press to be Restricted?" Doubtless many of the men who debated at that time thought they were settling these questions, or at least did not think they would be just as fresh for discussion a century later. Business conditions, backed by abundant crops, are rapidly improving. In the opinion of some traffic men the railroads will be busy bringing this fall's crop to market a year from now. Steel, copper and lumber interests are all very active. Money is firm and we think will remain so over the first of the year.

Mrs. Peter Holan, 11501 Buckeye Road, Cleveland, O., says: "Yes, indeed I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. My little boy had a bad case of whooping cough, some times he was blue in the face. I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and it had a remarkable effect and cured him in a short time." ## NO MORE CONSTIPATION.

It's Me For Olive Tablets!

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and Calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all. If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless.

Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them. "Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." 10c and 25c per box.

In the front window of the Heintz store on West State street are interesting specimens of the cork tree bark from which corks are made. The bark of the cork tree is cut and properly prepared and cured and then from it the corks are cut by machinery.

SOME ELECTION ODDITIES.

Washington, Oct. 28.—According to figures gathered by the Bureau of Statistics, upwards of 15,000,000 citizens of the United States will record their votes for president in the election one week from tomorrow. A total of about 1,400,000 women, in the states of California, Colorado, Idaho, Washington, Utah and Wyoming, are eligible to vote.

By no means all the men of 21 in the country are qualified voters, for the varying laws of the states not only bar convicts in the prisons in most cases, but place other restrictions on suffrage that become exceedingly important in presidential years. As nearly every state bars convicts from voting and there are about 150,000 convicts in the prisons of the country election day will mean nothing to a whole army of them.

A Friend of the Mississippi Pilots In the Old Days.

QUEER LITTLE LIGHTSHIPS.

They Were Floated and Anchored in the Channel of the River on Dark Nights and Showed the Navigator on Down Trips Where Reefs Were Not.

In the old steamboat days on the Mississippi, before the government had undertaken the duty of marking and lighting the "crossings" where the channel swings over from one bank to the other, the river pilots had to devise their own means of finding their way through these difficult and dangerous places.

In the daytime it was not hard to do, and on moonlight nights the landmarks, which every pilot knew by heart, could be seen plainly enough to make the crossing possible. But there were many nights so dark or foggy that the shore marks were not visible; then the reefs had to be "candleled."

Candleling was resorted to only on the down trip. Going up the river the pilot might "feel" of the reef with his boat, and if he did not find the best water, the first time he could back off and try again a little to one side or the other, wherever the soundings showed the deepest water to be.

In going down the river, however, that was impossible. The pilot had to find the channel the first time, for if the boat struck the current would drive her hard on the reef or else swing her broadside on the bar and in ten minutes imbed her in the very midst of it with tons of drifting sand.

To guard against such a disaster when nearing Pig's Eye, Reef Slough or Trempealeau bars—or any one of a dozen bars of equal difficulty—on a dark or hazy night the pilot stopped the boat at the head of the reef. With two men to row, a mate or watchman to steer, a "cub" pilot to manipulate the "candle buoys" and an older pilot to take soundings, the yawl was lowered and permitted to drop down the channel below the steamboat.

After the pilot had determined the best course by taking soundings the "cub," under his direction, anchored two, three or even four of the candle buoys, one after the other, in the center of the channel, and then the men let the yawl drop down below the reef, where it lay a little outside the channel. Then one of the men swung a lantern—a signal at which the pilot on watch came ahead, steering for the tiny lightships and running over them, one by one, until the reef was passed.

The candle buoy was made of a piece of two inch light pine plank, beveled for four inches at the "bow" in order to prevent its "diving" as the current pressed against it. A tin "scone" with three legs, three or four inches long, was tacked down to the plank. Half of a common candle was placed in each scone, and after being lighted an oiled paper chimney, with a base corresponding to that of the candlestick, was placed over the light to protect it from the wind. The outer ends of the tin "legs" of the scone were turned back over the base of the paper chimney to hold it in place, and the buoy was ready for launching.

A hole was bored about six inches from the end of the plank. Through the hole a small cord some ten or twelve feet in length was rove and knotted, and to this cord a lump of coal weighing perhaps ten pounds was tied. This served as an anchor to hold the buoy in its place in the center of the channel.

Such was the procedure fifty years ago or more. Since the government boats began patrolling the river and establishing permanent lights at all bad crossings it is seldom necessary for the pilots to go out in a sounding boat, although it is not an unheard of proceeding even now.

But the candle buoy is a thing of the past. Probably there are scores of present day pilots who never even heard of the makeshift little lightships that their puzzled predecessors were wont to launch amid the darkness and doubt of former years.—Youth's Companion.

A Title as Long as a Preface. Many old pamphlets are distinguished by titles as long as prefaces. The author of one, published in 1646, evidently did not share in the modern editor's enthusiasm for short title headings, for this is the name under which his publication was ushered into the world: "Scotland's public Acknowledgement of Gods Just Judgment upon their Nation for their Frequent Breach of Faith, Leagues, and Solemn Oathes made to their Neighbours of England to former ages, to gratify their Treacherous Confederates of France"—London Globe.

Rome's Triumphant Crown. The triumphal crown of Rome was made of laurel leaves and was given to the general who achieved a great victory over an enemy. He entered the city not by a gate, but over a portion of the wall which was thrown down to afford a passage. At his funeral his laurel crown was placed in his bier and buried with the body.

Bores. We often boast that we are never bored, but yet we are so conceited that we do not perceive how often we bore others.—La Rochefoucauld.

NAVAL MEDICAL DIRECTOR RETIRES.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Capt. Henry Gustav Moyer, a medical director, U. S. N., was placed on the retired list today on account of having reached the age limit for active service. For the past two years he has been in charge of the Naval Medical school and attached to the bureau of medicine and surgery of the navy department.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines. If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia, use cough medicines that contain opium, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. ## CUE STARS TO PLAY IN LEAGUE.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 28.—The National Three-Cushion Billiard league, organized last year, opens its second season tonight with contests between Boston and Pittsburgh players in this city. The league circuit comprises New York, Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia, in the east, and Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City in the west. The schedule provides for three games every two weeks in each city, the season to close the second week in April. Last year only amateur players were allowed to compete, but this year it has been decided to admit professionals and it is expected that such stars as DeOro, Anson, Kilg and others will take part.

Mrs. Paul Wehling, 316 Smith St., Peoria, Ill., had kidney and bladder trouble, with terrible backache and pain across the hips. "I just imagine her condition. She further says: 'I was also very nervous, had headaches and dizzy spells and was fast getting worse when I took Foley Kidney Pills, and now all my troubles are cured. Foley Kidney Pills have done so much for me I shall always recommend them.'" City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

THE JUNIORS OF JACKSONVILLE.

Sunday afternoon the Junior B. Y. P. U. society of the First Baptist church entertained the Junior societies of the other churches. Five organized societies were present and some beautiful banners were carried by the different organizations.

Lindley Williamson, the new president of the Baptist society, delivered the address of welcome in a very happy manner. The presidents of the various societies occupied seats in front and in time presided in a most pleasing way, after giving a report of work down in their own society.

The presidents are as follows: Grace Junior league—Alfred Pinkerton.

Christian—Ruth Darsie. State Street—Helen Adams.

Brooklyn—Ruth Holkenbrink.

Baptist—Norine Dorgan.

The general program of the afternoon was also presided over by Norine Dorgan in a most acceptable manner. About 250 people were present and the entire program which was given, reflected much credit upon the talented performers:

After an offering for missions was taken the program was closed with prayer by Rev. W. L. Dorgan, D. D.

INQUEST HELD SUNDAY.

Jury Found William Harrison, a Patient at Jacksonville State Hospital, Died From Apoplexy.

In the absence of Coroner Skinner, Sunday, W. T. Dyer, J. P., was called to Jacksonville State hospital at 10 o'clock a. m. to ascertain the cause of the death of William Harrison. The following jury was selected, viz: Perry J. White, foreman; George Hughes, J. N. Duncan, Joe Fanning, J. G. Sullivan and Wm. Catherwood, clerk. The witnesses examined, S. D. Miller, J. D. Watson and Dr. R. W. Pratt. After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict stating that death was due to apoplexy. The remains were taken to Gillham's undertaking establishment and later were interred in Diamond Grove cemetery.

ENCAMPMENTS TO MEET.

District Convention Will be Held in Jacksonville November 15th.

The I. O. O. F. encampments of the sixteenth Illinois district are to convene in this city November 15th and a grand time in that branch of the worthy order of Odd Fellows is expected. Rigdely encampment is to be the host on this occasion and that worthy veteran, J. T. Osborne is chairman of a committee of arrangements which insures good work.

Norman Waltrip of Whitehall, a high authority in the secret work of the order, will conduct a school of instruction and the degree work will be exemplified by a team from Ridgely encampment. An oyster supper will also be a feature of the occasion and a number of grand lodge officers, including S. J. Baker of Olney are expected to be present.

Morgan, Scott, Cass, Greene and Pike counties compose the district and each encampment in those counties is entitled to a delegate in the convention and will doubtless send them.

TATTERSALL'S IN LONDON.

Romantic Story of the World's Most Famous Horse Market.

The most famous horse mart in the world is Tattersall's in London. A romantic history attaches to this establishment.

In 1776 a certain Richard Tattersall, a wool comber of Yorkshire, who had lost his fortune during the Jacobite rebellion, obtained a ninety nine years' lease of a tract of ground in London and thereon built an establishment for the sale of horses and hounds.

Tattersall was on friendly terms with the prince regent, Lord Bellingham and others whose patronage greatly aided the enterprise. Such, indeed, was the friendship between the prince and Tattersall that the bust of George on top of the fountain in the sale yard was so placed at the prince's own request.

In due time a huge slice of luck came Tattersall's way. Lord Bellingham ran heavily into debt and by way of settlement passed on to Tattersall his famous race, Highflyer, which became the father of three Derby winners. The progeny of this horse in eighteen years are said to have won races to the value of no less than £170,000. Tattersall built himself a palatial country residence near Ely, calling it Highflyer Hall.

Tattersall's came to be the headquarters for the laying of turf wagers. Immense sums were won and lost there. The Marquis of Hastings lost more than £100,000 on one race alone, and it is said, not infrequently similar amounts changed hands on "settling days" at "Old Tatt's," or "the Corner," as the place was sometimes called.

All classes of society mingled at Tattersall's. Dukes and stable boys were brothers in the excited crowd, prepared to wager on anything and everything. This state of things led to such a scandal that upon the expiration of the lease the firm was refused a renewal. In its new establishment no betting was permitted.

At the modern Tattersall's some enormous prices for racers are occasionally obtained. Flying Fox is said to have been sold to a French owner for 37,500 guineas and Ormonde to an American for 30,000 guineas. Here also Scepter as a yearling was sold for 10,000 guineas, La Fleche for 12,500 guineas and Blair Athol for only 100 guineas less.—Harper's Weekly.

CENTRAL LEAGUE MEETING.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 28.—Club owners of the Central League of baseball clubs rounded up here today for their annual meeting. Much important business is slated for transaction. From a financial viewpoint the past season was not a very successful one for the Central and it is regarded as likely that the 12-club circuit may be cut to eight clubs before next spring. Dr. F. R. Carson of South Bend, who has been at the head of the league for many years, is to retire from the presidency. Louis Hoffbrunner of this city probably will be named to succeed him.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers in handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

Seldom has a national product made the instant and continued success achieved by Gold Dust. This wonderful powder was a success from the start, has continued to outsell and out-work all other products in its class, and is today (although it has hundreds of imitations) more of a seller and leader than ever. Gold Dust has always stood at the head of all cleansers, and its sales are yearly increasing. That's pretty good evidence of merit, isn't it?

Gold Dust will clean anything and everything about the house—and clean it in less time and with less labor than any other product. Here's a strong statement, the truth of which you can prove by buying and using one package of Gold Dust. We simply know that once you use Gold Dust, you'll never be without it.

A much better plan, and one that thousands of elderly people are following, is to take a gentle laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which acts as nearly like nature intended. In fact, the tendency of this remedy is to strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles and so in them to act naturally again. These medicines of all kinds can usually be dispensed with. This is the opinion of any people of different ages, among them Mr. Daniel Shivers, Coral, Mich., and Mr. Charles Heerer, 3026 Holly St., Kansas City, Mo., and they have Syrup Pepsin constantly in the house.

GERMAN POS OFFICES.
A Sarcastic Writer Frees His Mind
About Their Methods.
The postoffices in Germany are peculiar institutions, says F. Harris Deans in the Wide World Magazine. They are a far sighted people, the Germans, and they allow for expansion. If there are any postoffices in the country of less than three stories, I must have overlooked them. Every floor is divided into about four departments, and every department has about a dozen offices.

In some of the smaller towns where business is not very brisk the staff consists of one official. You have to make an appointment with him if you want to be served. Entering on the ground floor you run round and tap with your money at every pigeonhole until he answers. You then ask him for a stamp, whereupon he orders you to go to No. 1 pigeonhole and wait there till he comes. You wait patiently for about five minutes and then he pops his head out of No. 3 and wants to know if you've gone to sleep. When you ask for a five cent stamp he says,
"Oh, I thought it was a penny one you wanted," and instructs you to try at
No. 7. At No. 7 he probably discovers you have run out of five cent stamps and he has to go to windows No. 3 and
No. 11 and get two two cent ones and a one cent.

By this time you are getting quite friendly, and when you ask him where the telegraph office is he will probably get out his guidebook and hunt the place out for you. He may even offer to take you there himself, as he's the telegraph clerk as well and has got to get there anyhow in order to attend to you.

The Germans themselves when they go to buy a stamp make a day of it and take their lunch with them. It is quite a pretty sight to see the mother and a group of children sitting on the stairs, eating their bread and sausage and wondering whether father will remember them when he comes back with the stamp.

GENERAL MARKET NEWS

PEACE PROPOSAL LOWERS MARKET

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Oct. 28.—Wheat took a down turn today mainly because of alleged peace proposals to Turkey.
The close, though firm, was 1/2 to 3/4 lower than Saturday night. Latest trading left corn varying from 1/4 off to a shade advance, oats 1/4 down and provisions at a decline of 1/4 to 3/4.

Active selling of wheat began at the first tap of the bell. Bears were aggressive and bulls discouraged, owing to the break in the Liverpool markets, said to be directly due to peace talk in the Balkans. Rallying power showed itself in the wheat market to a slight extent as a result of big clearances. A radical increase in the visible supply, however, prevented return of anything resembling enthusiasm on the buying side.

December ranged from 92 1/2 to 93 1/2, with last sales 1/4 net lower at 92 1/2 to 93 1/2.

Fine weather and the wheat decline depressed corn early but the market afterward became firmer when selling displayed no vim. December fluctuated between 53 1/2 and 53 3/4, closing steady, a shade net higher at 53 3/4.

Resting orders that absorbed most of the offerings held the price of oats steady. Upper and lower levels reached for December were 32 1/2 and 32 3/4. The close at the last named figure was a loss of 1/4 net.

Heavy receipts of hogs were pulled down provisions. Despite covering by shorts the close was at a decline all around; pork lard 5 to 10c and ribs 5 to 17 1/2 to 20c, pork 10 to 42 1/2c off.

NEW YORK STOCKS.
New York, Oct. 28.—Stocks were strong today after an early period of fears of some unfavorable decisions by the supreme court. In the afternoon when it would have been known that the court would take no action on the several important cases now before it, the market more than made up for its initial heaviness but trading remained light.

Reading was again the most active

DANGER IN PROMISES BY THE DEMOCRATS

TAFT RECALLS HISTORY OF CLEVELAND ADMINISTRATION.

Proposed Tariff Changes Disrupted Business and Thousands Were Thrown Out of Employment—Farmers Lost Millions on Change in Price of Domestic Animals Alone.

Washington, Oct. 28.—President Taft today made public a statement in which he declared that the "four years of depression which followed the second election of President Cleveland" were due to the promise of tariff reform and the Democratic changes in the tariff that followed. The president said that the issue before the voters is clear "on the one hand prosperity and real progress; on the other, a leap in the dark."

"The American people," he continued, "have more than once surprised those who thought the people were being successfully fooled and I believe that a similar surprise awaits our opponents on the coming fifth of November."

Cleveland's Statement.
The statement in full follows:
"In view of erroneous statement regarding the causes of the four years of depression which followed the second election of President Cleveland it may be well to recall the facts. In his formal letter of acceptance, Sept. 26, 1892, Mr. Cleveland emphasized the need of 'tariff reform' and made it the leading issue between the parties. 'Tariff reform' is still our purpose," he said. "Though we oppose the theory that tariff laws may be passed having for their object the granting of discriminating and unfair governmental aid to private ventures, we wage no exterminatory war against American interests. This has a familiar Sound Today.

save that, instead of 'tariff reform' the Democratic slogan now is 'tariff for revenue only.' According to the Baltimore platform, the tariff is not merely to be reformed, but by the principle of protecting American industry is to be excised, root and branch. On that platform Governor Wilson stands.

"To go back to Mr. Cleveland's second term, the proof from his own writings and utterances is that he was elected on the issue of 'tariff reform.' It is also a fact of history that immediately upon his election capital and industry took alarm, enterprises became paralyzed, and business disorganized. The same what pueril argument has been advanced that these deplorable conditions could not have been due to impending 'tariff reform' because they arose nearly two years before the enactment of the Wilson tariff bill. It should be unnecessary to say that when there are signs of a cyclone the rational man does not wait for the storm to hit his house before getting into the cyclone cellar. The Wilson bill was in sight above the horizon on the morning after the November election of 1892, and capital and industry began their start for the cellar just as I fear, they will take to shelter again, should the Baltimore platform of 'a tariff for revenue only' be approved by the American people on November 5.

Situation Became Alarming.
"Mr. Cleveland was undoubtedly sincere in his belief that the alarming and extraordinary business situation as he called it in his special message of August 8, 1892, was due to the Sherman silver purchase act, but the fact remains that, after the act had been repealed, Nov. 1, 1893, the business situation became more and more alarming, and American energy and enterprise were prostrate throughout Mr. Cleveland's term, being revived again with the election of McKinley and the consequent assurance that the tariff reform experiment would soon give way to protection.

"The effect of the 'tariff reform' of 1894-97 which, as I have indicated, was actually felt from 1892 to 1897, is apparent in the statistics of wages paid in manufacturing industries in the decade of 1890-1900, as compared with the preceding and subsequent periods. In 1890 wages paid had increased nearly one thousand millions over 1880—from $947,973,795 to $1,891,228,312, whereas 1900, when the country was recovering from the blight of four years of democracy, showed an increase only to $2,008,361,000—that is, about $117,000,000 over 1890. In the subsequent decade of protection wages in manufacturing industries increased to $3,427,038,000. The experiences of the farmers is equally impressive. Their losses on the value of farm animals alone during the Cleveland 'tariff reform' regime amounted to about eight hundred millions of dollars.

Protection Maintains Market.
"In this connection it may be noted that our Democratic friends prefer to discover cause for amusement in the alleged claim by Republicans of credit for this year's abundant crops. The credit that Republicans claim, with the experience of fifty years to sustain them is that the Republican policy of protection for American industry maintains the best market in the world—the home market—for the farmer to sell his crops in, while foreign markets have been invaded and gained for both farmer and manufacturer to a degree never even distantly approached under Democratic administration.

"The growth of our foreign trade during three fiscal years of my administration has been set forth by Secretary Knox in a statement which ought to be read by every American who intends to cast his ballot in the coming election. Mr. Knox points out that during the three years there have been a gain of $541,311,095 in our foreign trade, the total value of exports for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, being $2,204,322,199, the trade balance for 1912 in favor of the United States being $551,075,475. Under the minimum tariff clause of the Payne tariff law, practically the entire world has received 'most favored nation' treatment. American exports to Germany alone have increased from $249,000,000 in 1910 to $306,000,000 in 1912, and increase of $57,000,000. During the same period our trade with practically all Europe has increased in exports $205,000,000 and our exports to Canada have grown from $215,990,021 in 1910 to $329,257,102 in 1912.

Bewildering Figures.
"As Secretary Knox says, the 'foreign market' is a vital consideration in our industrial life, and wherever we may look we find American products forging their way into the great markets of the world. To quote from a leading newspaper: 'The figures are almost bewildering. They tell the story of prosperity which should not be disturbed.'"

Then why disturb it? I would not suspect the Democratic candidates for the white house and for the capitol of such falsity to their pledges that they do not intend to disturb it. Their speech is very much like that which heralded the election of Mr. Cleveland and they may be presumed, in justice to themselves, to be as sincere in their promises as he was. Therefore they do intend to disturb the prosperous business we are now enjoying at home and with foreign countries—for our foreign trade is based largely on provisions of the Payne tariff law, which the Democratic party condemns and proposes to repeal.

Choice for Voter Clear.
"Except in the south, where the use of color is not allowed to vote in California and Kansas, where while as well as colored Republicans are for free trade throughout the United States, and that means that the large majority of citizens qualified to vote are free to express their will at the polls. The choice for the voter is not obscure; on the contrary it is as plain and clear an issue as ever was presented in our political history—it is between actual and assured prosperity, active industries, good wages, a flourishing home market and rapidly growing foreign trade, on the one hand, and depression of business, paralysis of industry, loss of employment for wage earners and general demoralization of trade at home and abroad on the other hand. On one side prosperity and real progress; on the other a leap in the dark. The American people have more than once surprised those who thought they were being successfully fooled, and I believe that a similar surprise awaits our opponents on the coming fifth of November."

MARK TWAIN BESIEGED.

Absurd, Impudent, Touching Requests Were Always Pouring In.

Mark Twain paid for his celebrity in the amount of "freak" mail received by him, according to Albert Bigelow Paine, his biographer, writing in Harper's Magazine.

"He was in a constant state of siege," says Mr. Paine, "besought by all varieties and conditions of humanity for favors such as only human need and abnormal ingenuity can invent. His ever increasing mail presented a marvelous exhibition of the human species on undress parade.

"Young men wrote requesting verses or sentiments to be inscribed in young ladies' autograph albums. Young girls wrote asking him to write a story of his life to be used as a school composition. Men starting obscure papers coolly invited him to lend them his name as editor, assuring him that he would be put to no trouble and that it would help advertise his books. A fruitful humorist wrote that he had invented some 5,000 puns and invited Mark Twain to father this terrible progeny in book form for a share of the returns. The list is endless. He said once:

"The symbol of the race ought to be a human being carrying an ax, for every human being has one concealed about him somewhere and is always seeking the opportunity to grind it."

"Letters came queerly addressed. There is one envelope still in existence which bears Clemens' name in elaborate design and a very good silhouette likeness, the work of some talented artist. 'Mark Twain, United States,' was a common address. 'Mark Twain, Somewhere,' mailed in a foreign country, reached him promptly, and 'Mark Twain, Anywhere,' found its way to Hartford in due season.

"Then there was a letter (though this was later; he was abroad at the time) mailed by Brander Matthews and Francis Wilson, addressed 'Mark Twain, God Knows Where.' It found him after traveling half around the world on its errand. In his answer he said, 'He did.' Then some one sent him a letter addressed 'The Devil Knows Where.' This also reached him, and he answered, 'He did too.' "Surely this was the furthest horizon of fame."

Scientific Language.

"No wonder," said a poet, "that no one cares to read the works of Haeckel, Darwin, Spencer, Huxley and so on. These men have much to say, but they don't know how to say it. They have never taken the time to learn to write." He drew his notebook from his pocket. "When Professor Thompson," he resumed, "hit on a new variety of cathode rays, he announced his discovery in these terms: 'Of an orthocathodic character, a detectable fluorescent excitant; of a paracathodic character, a defensible fluorescent nonexcitant; of a discathodic character, a nondetectable fluorescent nonexcitant; of an isocathodic character, a defensible, nonfluorescent nonexcitant'—and so on for forty or fifty pages."

He Certainly Liked Oysters.

A mighty oyster eater figures in the "Physiologie du Gout." "While I was at Versailles," writes Brillat-Savarin, "I frequently met M. Laperte, who was very fond of oysters, but complained he could never get his fill of them. I resolved to satisfy him for once and invited him to dinner. I kept company up to the third dozen and then allowed him to go on alone. He swallowed oysters steadily for more than an hour, and I had to stop him after the thirty-second dozen, just as he remarked that he was beginning to enjoy his treat. We dined, and Laperte acquitted himself with the vigor and appetite of a man who had long been fasting."—London Chronicle.

A Remarkable Fortress.

In the northern part of Madagascar is the most remarkable natural fortress in the world. It is occupied by a wild tribe who call themselves the people of the rocks. The fortress is a lofty and precipitous rock of enormous size, 1,000 feet high and eight square miles in area. Its sides are so steep that it cannot be climbed without artificial means. Within it is hollow, and the only entrance is by a subterranean passage.

A Dry Answer.

William the Conqueror's son Robert asked to be invested with the government of Normandy in his father's lifetime. But to this demand William the Conqueror replied dryly:

"It is not my custom to take off my clothes before I am ready to go to bed."

It Had Been Read.

An Example.

"John, what does it mean to 'play' a fish before landing it?" "You know how you refused me four times before you accepted and married me? It's the same thing."—Houston Post.

Different.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

The first number of the Artists' course, by Maud Powell, on Monday night, was a great treat for all interested in the best of everything.

It is the plan of the college to sell what few season tickets remain. The next number on the Artists' course will be a lecture on "Sculpture and Sculptors," by Lorado Taft.

Wednesday Bishop McDowell spoke to the students in chapel, giving a very helpful talk along the line of getting started right. In the afternoon he held conferences with different members of the faculty and on Thursday morning, from 9 to 10 o'clock, with the various students.

The Founders' Day exercises were observed Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. Nate, the new secretary of the Illinois conference Educational commission, was the first speaker. He was followed by Bishop McDowell. Comment was unnecessary on the address, which the resident bishop gave. It was one of the most helpful ever heard at the Woman's college.

Thursday afternoon an important meeting of the board of trustees was held. The following out-of-town trustees and visitors were present: Mrs. F. K. Robeson of Champaign, Dr. J. C. Williams of Decatur, Rev. A. C. Piersel of Springfield, Dr. Horace Reed of Decatur, Dr. J. C. Nate of Champaign and Dr. E. R. Zaring, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate of Chicago.

Miss Ruoy Neville gave a very interesting and helpful talk to the Young Women's Christian association Sunday night on Palestine. This talk was illustrated with the stereopticon and showed the places where she visited.

Miss Jessie Campbell, one of the instructors in the Home Economics department, spent Friday afternoon and Saturday morning in Waverly, as judge of the exhibits, held under the auspices of the Farmers' Institute of that district.

Because of Founders' Day, Thursday was a holiday at the Woman's college. The sophomores enjoyed a very delightful picnic at Gravel Springs. They made the trip on a hay rack. A number of the academy students had a picnic at Nichol's park while smaller groups of the students were enjoying the day in other ways.

BROKE HIS LEG.

Milton Long, who lives on South Diamond street and operates a farm near Markham, had the misfortune Saturday to break a leg. He was hauling rolls of wire fence about the farm and crossing an open ditch he was thrown from the wagon and a roll of fence fell on his leg breaking it. Dr. Fountain of Chapin gave the needed assistance and the patient is doing as well as could be expected.

MATRIMONIAL

Butterfield-Coverly.
The marriage of Miss Hazel Eleanor Coverly to Mr. Floyd Raymond Butterfield, took place Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, 635 Hardin avenue, Rev. Clyde Darsie, pastor of Central Christian church officiating, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the young people.

The Coverly home was tastefully decorated for the occasion by the use of asparagus and ferns, roses and carnations, the colors green and white being carried out in the various rooms. In the parlor where the vows were said, a floral arch had been constructed, banked with ferns.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Cora Graham sang "I Love You Truly," and "O, Promise Me." Miss Helena Conover of Ashland played the "Flower Song" and the wedding march from Lohengrin as the young people entered the room. The bride wore a dark blue tailor made suit. Following the impressive ring service an elaborate three course luncheon was served.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Coverly, and has always made this city her home. She is a young woman who has won many friends by her pleasing ways and sweet disposition. She received her education in the high school and is a member of the Central Christian church.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Butterfield of Griggsville, in which place he received his education. For sometime he has been in the employ of the Hooper shoe store, where his services are highly valued. He is a young man of integrity and upright life.

Mr. and Mrs. Butterfield will take a wedding trip to Chicago and will be at home to their friends after November 20th, at 356 East College avenue. They received a large number of pretty and useful presents.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Butterfield parents of the groom, his sister William Tracey and wife, and his cousins, Harry and Miss Alice Butterfield all of Griggsville, Miss Helena Conover of Ashland and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Coverly of Chicago.

Sinclair Russell, who resides one mile south of Woodson gave a fish fry Monday, in honor of a number of his friends. Mr. Russell seized the pond on his premises and secured over two hundred pounds of fine fish, mostly bass. ## MORTUARY

Bond.
Miss Elizabeth Gertrude Bond died at St. John's hospital in Springfield at 8 o'clock Sunday night. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. James Conway of this city.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Lutheran church in Beardstown.

Wyatt.
The esteem in which "Uncle" Robert Wyatt was held in his home at Murrayville where he had lived so many years was well attested by the audience which gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to his memory Sunday at 11 a. m. The funeral was conducted in the New Methodist church which was crowded to the doors with a respectful gathering of friends and neighbors in addition to a number from a distance. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Biddle who followed at the church the ritual of the denomination and the whole was deeply impressive and was heard with greatest interest by the large audience present.

As the deceased had been too a faithful soldier it was fitting that he should have the honors due him in that account and to that end the beautiful ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic was carried out with Capt. J. E. Wright acting as commander and Lyeurgus Goheen as chaplain. Beautiful and appropriate music was furnished by Mrs. C. R. Short, Miss Stella Cunningham, Prof. J. A. Dial and George Coultas, Mrs. Hugh E. Milmon accompanying on the piano.

Mr. Biddle paid a just tribute to the character of the departed and all was in keeping with the solemnity of the occasion.

At the close of the services the remains were borne to Bethel cemetery south of the city by members of the town government of which Mr. Wyatt had been one for some time. He was treasured at the time of his death. They were E. A. Whitlock, W. F. Cook, W. A. Wesner, N. C. Carlson, W. B. Worrall, F. M. Sooy.

They were Thomas McGinnis of Meredosia, Daniel McGinnis of New Berlin, James, Michael, Daniel and John McGinnis of Jacksonville. Interment was made in the Murrayville Catholic cemetery. ### AT THE GRAND.

One of the best comedies ever seen at the Grand opera house was Miss Margaret Anglin's production of "Green Stockings," which was offered Monday night. The play was witnessed by an audience that taxed the Grand to its capacity.

Miss Anglin plays the leading role in the production and was greeted with hearty outbursts of applause. He takes the part of the eldest of our sisters, whose chances for marriage are considered very slight, and after being treated as a spinster for some time she decides to change the laws of her relatives and friends by announcing her engagement to a mythical colonel in the British army, whose name she gives as J. N. Smith. She takes an aunt, who is visiting from Chicago, into her confidence and after eight months of deception she has arranged for the death of Colonel Smith printed in the London Times. It appears that there is such a person as Colonel Smith in the army and he receives her first letter she wrote after announcing the engagement, but which she did not intend to post. The letter was mailed by one of her sisters and just before "Cecilia" and her aunt sail for America Colonel Smith appears on the scene, introducing himself as a very dear friend of the late colonel, but later is found out to be the colonel, and after explanations, the two fall in love with each other.

During its three acts the play develops some remarkable funny situations, with which Miss Anglin is better known as an emotional actress and has been seen in the leading roles of "The Great Divide" and "The Awakening of Helen Ritchie." However her comedy work seems equally high class and seems to emphasize the breadth of her talent. Miss Anglin was supported by an excellent cast, among the notables being Miss Maude Durand, who appeared as Mrs. Chisholm Faraday of Chicago, Stanley Dark as Colonel Smith and Van Dyke Sheldon as Robert Tarver. The costuming was very handsome as were the stage settings. Manager Hunt again deserves congratulations for bringing a splendid production to Jacksonville.

CHILDREN ENJOYED PARTY ON THE LAWN

Leaf Raking Event at the Academy Gave Pleasure to Large Number—Pretty Games Were Played and Halloween Lunch Served.

The Story Hour and Social Training classes of the academy, under the supervision of the Misses Heien and Edith Robinson, enjoyed a Halloween leaf raking party Monday afternoon, the hours being from 3:30 till 5. After this all adjourned to the yard where the bon-fires were lighted and marshmallows roasted. Pretty lanterns for the occasion had been given by Mr. Munger, and the small favors presented each child, consisted of plaster paris Halloween figures, filled with candy. ### WHIPPLE SENIORS HAVE BANQUET Delightful Gathering of Members at the King Residence—Mr. Weldy in Role of Toastmaster.

One of the most enjoyable social events of student life was the senior banquet of Whipple Academy, held at the home of Miss Fannie King on West State street, Monday evening. Previous to the occasion, the girls of the class showed their skill in the manner in which they decorated the parlor and dining room. In the parlor there had been artistically arranged autumn leaves, jack-o-lanterns, which gave a distinctly Halloween effect. Old rose and white, the class colors, were especially the prevailing colors in the dining room and parlor.

After an excellent three course dinner, Mr. Weldy was named as toastmaster, a position he filled with delight to all. The list of toasts which followed were given in a spirited manner, sprinkled with plenty of wit and humor:

"Future of Class of '13"—J. H. Zercher.

"Class Spirit"—Dean Cochran.

"College Education"—Miss Gladys Galloway.

"Why I Came to Whipple"—Miss Myrtle Mick.

"Examinations"—Miss Alma Blakeman.
